Altar Guild

Sharon North 443-262-8792 Jessica Sellers 410-725-8288

The Altar Guild is responsible for setting up and caring for the furnishings in the nave, sanctuary, and sacristy, as well as any other area of the church where special worship will take place. The Altar Guild is a ministry of "quiet service". It's behind the scenes, but a most critical act of service to the church.

Back Packs

Sharon North 443-262-8792

Back packs are filled and delivered for distribution to children of need through Social Services.

Choir

Nancy Cook 410-758-2502

The primary role of the choir is to lead and support the congregation's worship through singing. Choirs may also sing anthems or make other special musical offerings to beautify and enhance the experience of worship.

Coffee Hour

Kathie Moore 410-310-7653

Kathy Anderson 410-253-3000

The Coffee Hour is held every Sunday after the service. It is a time of fellowship, which gives members of the congregation the opportunity to meet other members while enjoying coffee and a small snack. Members of the congregation sign up for a particular date to supply the snack.

Ushers

Dan Rugg 410-758-1395

Ushers welcome parishioners into the church. They create a welcoming environment and set the tone for every parishioner's personal experience with the church. Ushers collect the offering at the appointed time during the service. Ushers are responsible for securing the offering until it can be counted and deposited. Ushers organize the procession to the Holy Eucharistic and assist individuals with mobility issues.

Vestry

Bob North 443-454-6923

The vestry is the legal representative of the parish with regard to all matters pertaining to its corporate property. The basic responsibilities of the vestry are to help define and articulate the mission of the congregation, to support the church's mission by word and deed, to ensure effective organization and planning and to manage resources and finances. At St. Paul's, vestry members are expected to be faithful in worship and stewardship and well informed about the activities of the parish.
